BCEDC ANNUAL MEETING AND AWARDS

Which regional leader will be honored with this year's Norman Marsh Award? Which business was voted most philanthropic and, therefore, deserving of the Corporate Soul Award? What organization will be recognized for its contributions to the economic vitality of Belknap County? The answers will be revealed at the BCEDC Annual Meeting on Wednesday, March 24. To be on hand, RSVP by March 19th to 524-3057 or info@bcedc.org. Read more at http://www.bcedc.org/new_events_latest.asp

NEW HAMPSHIRE GETS BACK TO WORK

Effective March 15th, workers and businesses were able to enroll in the first part of New Hampshire Working, the Governor's jobs initiative. Enrollment allows workers to participate in up to six weeks of on-the-job training from a potential employer while continuing to collect unemployment benefits. This launch represents one part of Governor John Lynch's three-part jobs initiative.

BUSINESS OUTREACH SERIES

Gov. John Lynch announced a series of regional business outreach sessions designed to directly connect New Hampshire businesses with state leaders and state services. The sessions give businesses an opportunity to hear from and question state heads about state services. The next session will be held April 16 in Laconia. To pre-register, please call Pat Salvucci by March 19th at 271-3171.
